About the Place

UDAIPUR :

Udaipur, famously known as the City of Lakes, is regarded as one of the most romantic and serene destinations in India. Surrounded by the Aravalli Hills on all sides, the city offers a blend of natural beauty, royal history, artistic culture and timeless architecture. Often called the Venice of the East, Udaipur is home to stunning palaces, heritage havelis, beautifully carved temples, vibrant bazaars and picturesque water bodies. A tranquil boat ride on Lake Pichola at sunset is one of the finest ways to experience the charm and pride of Rajasthan that Udaipur carries effortlessly.

LAKE PICHHOLA :

Lake Pichhola is one of the oldest and most iconic lakes of Udaipur. Created in the 14th century, the lake is surrounded by palaces, ghats, temples and heritage structures. The famous Lake Palace appears as if it is floating on the water, creating one of the most photographed and dream-like visuals in India. Evening boat cruises offer a magical view of the illuminated city and are considered the heart of Udaipur's experience.

KUMBHALGARH FORT :

Located around 85 km from Udaipur, Kumbhalgarh Fort is an UNESCO World Heritage Site and one of the most significant forts of Rajasthan. Built by Rana Kumbha in the 15th century on the Aravalli ranges, the fort is known for its massive 36 km wall – the second longest continuous wall in the world after the Great Wall of China. Famous for being the birthplace of Maharana Pratap, the fort houses several temples, palaces and the stunning Badal Mahal. Its historic strength and panoramic views make it a must-visit extension to an Udaipur trip.
